To whom it may concern:

I have known John Devens for eight years. He does not only excellent construction work, but also is trustworthy and reliable.

John has constructed a huge ramp, decks and two balconies with railings at my home. He has fixed areas of wood rot and installed sliding glass doors and windows. There doesn't seem to be a challenge he can't meet!

I am sorry that he is leaving our area, for there is no one I know of who I can call to construct or fix something who will say, "I'll drop by tomorrow and scope it out" and actually be here. He's as good as his word.

I have recommended John to many friends and neighbors and we all lament his move to the Orlando area. He's a unique combination of great work ethic, excellent workmanship, and friendship. I wish him only the best.
